

Hello,

My family and I would like to strongly oppose any weakening or specific exception being granted in the Federal, and especially the Indiana do-not-call law! Our time at home is our own, and we are quite capable of initiating contact with these businesses, (in this case, banks), should we be interested in their products. Please continue to protect the peace, privacy, and sanctity of our homes!

Thank you, Charles D Lawless